To whom it may concern at Sony ATV FTV royalty department:

I attach the advice that accompanied my royalty statement for the period January through June 2010 that was forwarded by HASBRO to my FORMER attorney, Patrick Monaghan on December 2010. I attach the advice (page 3) from that statement below.

The statement advises that Payment was held at the request of BUSINESS AFFAIRS.

I called Sony ATV last year to ask why my payments were being held. I was told that Sony ATV was suing a company called TV-Loonland AG and that my payments were being held regarding the corporate litigation between your company and the German company, Loonland.

As this kind of (international) litigation may go on for a very long time, and I have waited for three years, I ask that you now send this 2010 royalty payment and any other royalty payments that you may have held to me DIRECTLY at my home address:

Anne Bryant 2601 Jefferson Circle Sarasota, FL 34239.

As I am held responsible to pay taxes on the entire amount of any distribution, please do not send my payments to my FORMER attorney or any attorney.

Thank you.

Sincerely, Anne Bryant

To whom it may concern at Sony ATV,

I am a composer who has been paid through your Administration of my songwriter catalogue from (roughly) 1996 through 2011. I wrote to you by email at <FTVQquestions@Sonyatv.com> on Nov. 21, 2013 about the statement cited above that you forwarded through HASBRO, in which you state that the Payments are held at Business Affairs request. I did not receive a reply to my inquiry (email enclosed).

I have been the Plaintiff in a prolonged litigation with respect to music publishing and performance royalty issues between me and my former Publisher, Sunbow Productions, Inc. Sony was the "Indemnitor."

It is unfair for Sony ATV to harass me by holding my funds. Please remit my royalty payments to me immediately at the address on this letterhead. Thank You.

Truly,

Anne Bryant

Dear Pro Se Intake Unit Clerk,

I enclose the original signature copy of an ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE motion.

My understanding is that Order to Show Cause motions are not filed, but are to be provided to the Judge; and my understanding from (my call to) the Pro Se Intake Unit on 12/31/16 is that I should not send a copies of OTSC motions to the defendants. As I have never filed this type of motion before, I hope this is correct and that I have sent these two motions to the Court properly.

With all good wishes to you for a Happy New Year!
